

IIT + VCM = MUSIC

IIT STUDENTS AT VANDERCOOK COLLEGE OF MUSIC

Continue your music studies at VanderCook. Play in band, orchestra or jazz band. Sing in the choir. Take piano or guitar lessons. Study music theory or learn about music history.

IIT MUSIC STUDIES AT VCM

Illinois Institute of Technology students can study music at a nationally-acclaimed music education institution through an arrangement with VanderCook College of Music.

IIT students have the opportunity to play in music ensembles, participate in music classes, or take private music lessons at VanderCook College of Music, a nationally acclaimed music education college.

IIT STUDENT MUSIC OFFERINGS

Large Ensembles:

Concert Band Concert Choir
Philharmonic Orchestra

Chamber Ensembles:

Chamber Singers Jazz Ensemble
Percussion Ensemble Flute Choir
Clarinet Choir Saxophone Ensemble
Brass Ensemble String Ensemble
Double Reed Ensemble Guitar Ensemble

Courses are available for music theory, sight-singing and ear training, music history, world music, music arranging, and jazz harmony.

Private lessons available for flute, clarinet, oboe, bassoon, saxophone, trumpet, horn, trombone, euphonium, tuba, percussion, violin, viola, cello, bass, guitar, piano and voice.

HOW YOU CAN SIGN UP

IIT students in good standing pay a small stipend to IIT and pay nothing to VanderCook College. IIT pays students' tuition at VanderCook.

Once you are on campus, come visit us at, 3140 S. Federal St. and get the enrollment process going. It's that simple!

To learn more, visit us at www.vandercook.edu. For more about the partnership, Contact Kaye Clements, dean of undergraduate studies at kclements@vandercook.edu or 312-225-6288.

above: IIT student Vincent Pierre playing clarinet with the VanderCook Symphonic Band.

PARTICIPATE

For ten years, IIT students have enjoyed the superior music instruction available at VanderCook College of Music.

VanderCook offers only one degree – music education – and is nationally known for the outstanding teachers and musicians who have trained there since 1909.